Chamber Explorations has been issued a specific license by The Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), which authorizes registered guests of our programs to visit Cuba legally. There are no applications to complete, and your travel with us is fully authorized. Prior to departure, you will receive a copy of our Specific License and a Letter of Authorization which legalizes your travel to Cuba.

Day 1: Miami

Arrive in Miami. Transfer to your Miami airport area hotel. Dinner is on your own.

Overnight: Miami

Day 2: Miami - Cuba (L)

Depart Miami on your short flight to Cuba. Upon arrival at Jose Marti International Airport, we'll meet our Cuban host, an experienced bilingual guide who will give us an orientation of Cuba's capital city. We'll explore the Cathedral de la Havana, built in baroque style in 1748 and learn about its preservation and continuous restoration. Cuban writer Alejo Carpentier described the building as "music turned to stone," words that still ring true today in the local culture. We'll stop for a group photo at the Plaza de la Revolucion. See the Greek Orthodox Church and the Scale Model of the city of Havana. Lunch will be included at the Havana Harbor Side Terrace, El Templete Restaurant. From there, we'll visit the Museo Fine Arts and explore the beautiful Museo de la Revolucion that displays documents and artifacts telling the country's history. The museum is housed in the former presidential palace which was home to Cuba's leaders from the 1920s until 1959. This building offers beautiful architecture as well as an interior that was designed by Tiffany's of New York. Later, visit La Marketa de Havana in Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This is a collective association of small craft workers where you will meet local merchants and artists. The evening is at leisure.

Overnight: Havana

Day 3: Havana - Terrazas Region of Vinales - Havana (B,L,D)

Travel to Las Terrazas region of Vinales. The western province of Pinar del Rio is known for its stunning scenery, a landscape of prehistoric looking flat-top mountains or "mogotes", tobacco plantations, caves and rivers. Visit Las Terrazas, a small cooperative village that was set up in the 1960s to be self-sufficient. We will visit its local village called Rancho Curujey to learn about the self-sustaining successes in reforestation, historic preservation, environmental balance and a good life. Next we meet with local artists and craft workers in their homes and studios and walk the ruins of a French Coffee Plantation built in 1801. Next, take a boat ride to see the Prehistoric Painted Caves. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before seeing local tobacco fields and the Cathedral Church in Vinales. Later in the day we will visit the San Lazaro Church in El Rincon, named after San Lazaro, the Saint of the poor. Thousands of Cubans make the journey here every year on Dec. 17 with some pilgrims making the trek barefoot or dragging stones behind them. Dinner tonight is at the famous Patio Restaurant El Aijibe.

Overnight: Havana

Day 4: Havana - Trinidad (B,L,D)

Following breakfast we'll leave Havana behind and depart to Trinidad. Along the way we will drive through the beautiful province of Cienfuegos, Cuba's "Pearl of the South". We'll stop for lunch at a local restaurant en route. Arrive in Cienfuegos, founded in 1819 by French settlers and currently one of Cuba's newest cities offering harmonious architecture and urban planning. Begin with a panoramic overview of its Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site followed by a visit to the Botanical Garden. Next, visit the Jagua Castle, the fortress of Nuestra Señora de Los Angeles de Jagua, completed in 1745. It is a fine example of the military architecture of 18th century Cuba. This afternoon we continue our journey to Trinidad and check into the Hotel Brisas Trinidad del Mar for a two night stay. After a welcome cocktail and dinner, it's time to dust off your dancing shoes and learn to dance the Salsa.

Overnight: Trinidad

Day 5: Trinidad (B, L, D)

Today, we'll have a walking tour of Trinidad de Cuba, one of the country's oldest cities, founded by the Spaniards in 1514. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, it was established on orders of the conquistador Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar, who traveled to Cuba with Columbus in 1493. After lunch at the La Palacio del Villa Restaurant, we visit the Plaza Mayor, Museum of Architecture, Museum of the Romantic Era, and other amazing sites. We go to a sugar plantation and the mirador lookout over the Sugar Mill Valley, also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Here sugar barons constructed their opulent countryside mansions and huge refineries. Trinidad is well-known for its pottery. We'll meet a family of potters, who have been passing on the tradition for generations, visit their studio and enjoy a pottery demonstration. Dinner is included this evening.

Overnight: Trinidad

This itinerary provides a full time schedule of activities that result in meaningful exchanges through people-to-people contact. U.S. law requires all travelers joining this program adhere to the full time schedule and imposes on Chamber Explorations the responsibility to ensure such observance.

Day 6: Trinidad - Playa Giron - Havana (B,L)

Overnight: Havana

After checking out of our hotel, we'll drive back to Havana, stopping at the town of Playa Giron. This coastal region was the site of the historical 1961 clash between the CIA trained Cuban exiles and rebel forces, the event that defined U.S. Cuban relations for decades. We'll tour the Bay of Pigs Museum that tells the story of the invasion and the infamous battle. We'll see many historical artifacts, including a Sea Fury fighter aircraft, photos, and maps which outline each step of the failed plan. Today, we'll also visit a local school/daycare. We arrive in Havana for a three night stay with dinner on our own this evening.

Day 7: Havana - Hemingway Farm - Cojimar (B,L,D)

Overnight: Havana

Today we'll enter the world of Ernest Hemingway with a visit to Hemingway's Farm, Finca La Vigia. This beautiful property hosts the house where the Nobel Prize winner lived with his wife Martha for 21 years. View the perfectly preserved home where many of the Hemingway personal belongings remain intact. You may walk the grounds and climb the stairs for the panoramic view from his study or view his yacht, the Pilar in which he used to patrol for Nazis in the Caribbean waters and featured in his novel "Islands in the Stream". Next, visit to the picturesque Cojimar Fishing Village made famous by Hemingway's novel "Old Man in the Sea" that garnered a Pulitzer Prize in 1953 as well as the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1954. Enjoy lunch at Las Terrazas Restaurant overlooking the water with great views of the emerald green sea. From here we'll venture into the Guanabacoa Region, rich with religious diversity. This village has some of the finest colonial churches where locals worship both Catholic and Santeria saints. We'll visit the Museo de Guanabacoa of Santeria Orishas and see exhibits on the fascinating Afro-Cuban culture. Visit the Partagas Cigar Factory, one of the oldest cigar brands in the world, established in Havana in 1845. Learn about the manufacturing of fine Cuban cigars and interact with the factory workers about the history and process. Dinner tonight is at the Cafe del Oriente Restaurant in Old Havana, one of the finest dining establishments in all of Cuba.

Day 8: Havana - (B,L,D)

Overnight: Havana

Today, we'll visit the Callejon de Hamel, a street in central Havana where cultural rescue and expansion has been expressed through the artist Salvadore Gonzalez. His murals and sculptures have taken over entire buildings and facades. We'll meet with local artists to learn more about this art form. Next, see the Colon Cemetery, founded in 1876 and famous for its elaborate sculptures. This afternoon explore the Morro Castle, built in 1589, it protects the mouth of the Havana harbor. Next visit the Cuban Literacy Museum where we'll learn about a national effort to educate rural farmers and families. A Farewell Dinner this evening at the outside patio at the La Barraca Restaurant where we'll enjoy traditional Cuban cuisine and lively music.
